

I'm opposed to tax increases or additional taxes that aren't earmarked to specific project that has definable objectives that will be accomplished. Until it can be proved that existing funds are expended appropriately, additional funding won't solve the problem. Legislators, get your act together!!