

I oppose this law because it is unconstitutional

- 1) It violates the first amendment as a content and viewpoint based restriction of speech
- 2) it violates the first amendment as a prior restraint upon speech by requiring a licensing scheme
- 3) it violates the first amendment as a heckler's veto of speech
- 4) it violates the communications decency act 47 USC 230
- 5) it violates the copyright act 17 USC 201(e), 301(a)
