

Please allow the opportunity to equalize this requirement for the advanced learners of multiple languages. This expansion honors the hard work of our Dual Language learners who have skills that expand and exceeded their monolingual peers. Language Arts requirements can be taught in languages other than English, thank you for recognizing and celebrating these former antiquated restrictions in an effort to create a more inclusive education.