

Health Committee,

As a former dental director in thee different FQHC facilities in CA, I understand the training and experience of dental hygienists and know that expanding their role in clinical dentistry more and more people will get needed services.