

I strongly object to this bill. This bill that requires all guns to be locked up will not defeat criminals, they can get around these locks with next to no efforts. They will however ensure that if someone breaks into my house, I will be unable to defend myself in time as my gun will be locked up. It's a misguided attempt who's real purpose is to trap lawful gun owners into becoming criminals