

I'm appalled at the individuals who would support such a bill that SWORE an oath to protect and defend the constitution. I would ask everyone who supports such a ridiculous bill to do a lot of soul searching and ask for forgiveness from the public for their sudden sense of losing their minds. I reject the idea that empowers criminals and asks law abiding individuals to not be able to protect themselves.