

I cannot believe you people need to be told not to needlessly inflict cruelty and suffering on your constituents, but here we are.

People do not have money. We are in the middle of the worst public health emergency in decades and experiencing the second worst economic crisis of our lifetimes. All this is obvious to anyone paying attention. To deny it is nothing less than evil. Ceding more control to landlords is evil. Do not allow the poorest and most vulnerable people of this state to suffer.

Many of you are rich. Most of you have either no idea what it means to struggle or you simply do not care, so let me give you a bit of advice: people are well aware of who you are and what you are doing. People can see who cares about them and who does not. Passing bills like these is the bare minimum of what you need to do to ensure their safety.

You may continue to ignore the common people, you may continue to abandon them to the greed of landlords, but every action has a consequence. The choice is yours. Do the right thing.
