

More ludicrous anti-gun trash. IF you cannot "vet" a purchaser in a reasonable amount of time, then perhaps you should not be doing so in the first place. At the very least a division for such work should then be formed.