

Please OPPOSE this. I rent out my only house because I can not afford to live in it at this time. Not being able to have a say in how many people can live there would cause a strain on the little house and having to repair everything before I can move back in would cause a huge strain on my income. Please Please Oppose this.
Thank you