

I don't want to have government dictate and place requirements on how my personal firearm is locked up in my own home with a trigger or cable lock where I can't swiftly grab and use my firearm to defend myself and my family when seconds count. I don't want to be fined if I can't report within 72 hours if my firearm was stolen from burglars. Fine the people that steal the firearms.