

People who are arrested such should get proper care. Besides the issues of compassion and respect, the state could increase its expenses by ignoring medical problems, and/or open itself to liability lawsuits. Please pass this bill.