

This Senate Bill will not promote equal or proper instruction in the principles of history, but a totally biased and one-sided version of our history as a nation and as a state. We have abandoned individual and local ideals here in favor of a state mandate and that does not ensure that our youth will be taught HOW to think but WHAT to think about history. I am appalled that the Education Committee is even considering these changes in instruction here in my home state.