

This will have a huge negative affect on our economy and cause major issues with investors ability to survive. Many rentals are own by individuals that may have all there retirement income coming from the source of the rentals they own. They have worked their whole lives to have something to live on in retirement.