

BIPOC communities have for too long been left out of planning and land use decision making processes. More often than not they have been blatantly disadvantaged by this process. Often the communities most effected by pollution and right of way are those of color. I support HB 2488 as a first step in healing these injustices and paving the way for a future where those who have been disadvantaged by our systemically racist have a seat at the table.