

Students deserve to have the resources and tools necessary to support their learning. The current resources provided are far outdated and create an unnecessary barrier to learners who demonstrate their resilience, dedication, and commitment to their education. Education allows our community to be strengthened, supported, and more humane. Please vote yes.