

I can not express how important this SB means to me and the people who look like me. Education is key to acceptance and the beginning of the end of systemic racism. This SB is long over due. The correct history is needed in schools and Black history is American history.

Gina DuQuenne
Ashland City Councilor