

These four measures taken together are of great importance to improve the operation of our state legislature. We elect representatives to represent us. My elected representatives are not representing me when they walk out because they disagree with the policy being enacted and the vote can't go their way. If I don't show up for work, I am fired from my job. That is what this measure clearly will do.