

I endorse expanding the size of the board to enhance the balance and equity of the decision making process.