

I support this bill. People who hold discriminatory views about protected classes should not serve in positions that allow them to act on these biases in detrimental or violent ways.