

The OSMB should have additional input from various biology, fishery and non-motorized boat users to make regulations that are fair to all who enjoy the river.