

The proposed bill will do nothing to improve public safety or to ensure that firearms won't be stole. Responsible gun owners already secure their firearms so they are not able to be accessed by unauthorized individuals. This appears to be an attempt to criminalize law abiding gun owners and should not pass out of committee.

Sincerely
Phil Fleury