

Please restore the rights of incarcerated individuals to participate in our democracy. They are included and considered in how resources are allocated, but have no voice in the process. They are already paying the debts for their crimes through their sentences. Thank you for your consideration.