

This bill is unenforceable, impractical, unconstitutional (state and federal), violates privacy, ineffective and tyrannical.

Dump this bill. It's just plain stupid. Responsible owners already do this to the degree they are able and believe in the necessity.

People must protect themselves, loved ones and property.