

As a citizen of Portland, I have seen little to no accountability of the Portland Police. This will help protect the citizens, and make sure that the policies they voted for are upheld.