

It would be consistent with my support of the DAS mandate to study reparations to encourage the federal government to do the same.