

My husband and I support trigger locks on guns. Our families own guns, many of us have hunted our food for generations and we believe in gun safety. Most gun deaths, according to statistics I have read, happen within families causing not just deaths, but sometimes horrendous disabilities. I haven't read the full text of the bill, but i hope it is written so that people like us can reasonably apply safety measures to household guns.