

Requiring schools to teach racism history presumes that our country was founded on the basis of racism which is false. The Declaration of Independence clearly states that ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL. Racism is obviously wrong and to mandate curriculum that assumes all people are racists is an insult to our founding principles.