

I am an agricultural worker in Oregon who also owns a small flower business. I support this bill. It is time to treat agricultural workers like all other workers.