

This tax would hurt my business and families that are dependent for income. There is already a total 1% tax charged on new sales of boats that we were not able to vote on.