

This needs to be done! It is so important to have a fuller, clearer-eyed view of the history of inequality in Oregon and even more important that this information be given to students by trusted sources (i.e. teachers/educators). I am very, very pleased to support this bill.