

It is very important for children to learn about the states history. It is the only way we will end white supremacy and change our systems.