

I am opposed to HB2725. I believe this is unwarranted and unproven that crafts over 4000lbs are a problem. This is an issue of one user group being singled out by another user group. Our annual storm and rain water have more of an affect than water craft.