

An excise tax on wake boat sales will discourage recreational use of our public waterways, and discourage the population from utilizing our natural resources and stay motivated to protect it for future use.