

It is my perspective that there should be a more balanced approach to taxes imposed on boat or other sales for those using our public waterways.