

This is an overly restrictive bill and is designed to solve a problem that does not exist. Yes, once in a while a boat makes a large wake. If a person doesn't like waves, he shouldn't live on the river. The real purpose of this bill (and the similar bill) is to stop people from having fun.