

This legislation is a blanket approach ultimately banning all power building water play activities. There's room for everyone. This legislation is flawed.