

I strongly believe that the willamette waterway must allow all types of boaters to utilize and recreate on the River. Wakeboards and wake surf are a great recreation for those that live close to the river system.