

As a career coach for young adults who are largely using SNAP benefits, I understand the challenge of not being able to use the benefit for personal hygiene products. I support this bill and hope it will become a norm in all states.