

WE DON'T WANT THIS. This hearing is built for the small fraction of Oregonians who have the privilege to live wherever they please. This does not give them the right outlaw activities from the community. If they have this right, I'll start pushing legislation that outlaws running on the sidewalk out front my house. My property ends at the grass, and their property ends before the water.

- Jacob Baldry