

Please vote yes on this bill. I fully support it. Raptors are being devastated by wind turbines, and as top avian predators, they are vital to the ecosystem. They keep rodents under control, manage decaying carcasses, etc. We must find ways to have both wind turbines for renewable energy and also protect our raptors. It is worth spending some money and effort on.