

Dear Chairman Dembrow, I strongly oppose SB 223. This bill is a significant threat to religious freedom and parental choice. It also undermines private education in Oregon by making it subject to oversight by the state. Our school already prioritizes student safety and the Legislature passed a law in 2019 to protect private school students. SB 223 is unnecessary in light of that legislation.