

I am strongly in favor of this bill. Protecting yourself, your family, and your friends is not an onerous task. There are many options for securing a firearm, and I think all gun owners should take that responsibility seriously. As a Grandmother, I worry about young children who visit the homes of their friends, where there might be an unsecured firearm. Please support this bill, and help keep us all safe.