

Private schools need independence from the state. This bill could be used to push the secular state's values on the children of private citizens leveraging state law. This is wrong.