

My wife and I are well into our 80th years. I give organic food credit for our robust health at this stage of our lives. Need I say more as to why I wholeheartedly support this bill?