

I am writing in support of HB 2695

The mission of the marine board does include the words "environmental stewardship". It makes sense, therefore to include a person with environmental expertise on the board. Thank you.