

This means young children will need to choose a gender at an age when their brain is not capable of making life choices. This sb52 forces social peer pressure on young children. Let us get back to teaching our children academics so they are equipped to compete in the job market as adults.