

What is SB 223's impact on home schooling? It is disturbing how the state is encroaching on every front, and now they want the minds of our children, by the ever-tightening entanglement of state intervention in their bizarre if not atheistic educational system where unseemly things are being pressed into the reluctant minds of our children. This is a place where the government does NOT belong. Keep your hands off of our children!!

Most Sincerely