

As a mother of children in both the private and public education systems, I strongly oppose bill SB 223.