

I am submitting my opposition of SB 223 to the Senate Education Committee. I am very concerned at how this bill intrudes upon private schools freedoms. Accredited private schools already have regulations and oversight. They do not need additional oversight by a public government body. The threat of imprisonment and fines as well as preventing students from participating in athletics is beyond ridiculous. SB 223 Threatens religious freedoms and parental choice. Please vote NO on SB 223.