

I was raised in Oregon and love this state, but if this bill is passed I will leave immediately. This is an intrusion on the First Amendment and I will not live in a state that infringes on the liberties of any person including for religious reasons.